

Fabric End Use Applications

End use applications: “Yes” Indicates that fabrics have been used in the application specified.

Indoor: This indicates that the fabrics specified have been used in public buildings, places of entertainment, the retail sector, where flame retardant fabric is required dependent upon the specifying authority.

Outdoor: Suitable fabrics for external applications including promotional flags and banners, signage and outdoor event banners.

Flags: Fabrics for flags intended to be flown either externally or internally and will provide the durability expected of a fabric used in that application or for large stadia flags where FR fabrics must be used.

Stage / Theatre: Fabrics specified can be used in theatrical applications such as scenic stage backdrops, and decorative drapes.

Soft Signage / Retail: Fabrics typically used for retail soft signage, point of sale or point of purchase, window displays for promotional graphics.

Display Banners: Fabrics in this category are used for display banners including pop-ups, roll-ups, hanging banners and even exhibition graphics where permissible.

Light Boxes: These fabrics are suitable for illuminated light boxes for advertising purposes dependent upon the FR integrity required by the specifying authority. Some fabrics may require the use of a diffuser.

Exhibition Graphics: Uses include exhibition graphics for soft fabric wall sections, screening, hanging drapes, banners etc. where FR performance is often required.

Interior: Fabrics used in a number of interior applications including stretch canvas art reproduction, acoustic wall panels, personalised soft filled products, occasional furniture, decorative hanging drapes, screening etc.

This information is provided for guidance ONLY and the Customer shall determine the suitability of any of the fabrics supplied by Brook International for the intended end-use application.

Where fabrics are specified as FR (flame retardant) they conform to the standard specified and certificates are available upon request.
